Entertainment:

Entertainment includes any activity generally considered to provide entertainment, amusement, or recreation. Examples include entertaining guests at nightclubs; at social, athletic, and sporting clubs; at theaters; at sporting events; on boats and yachts; or on hunting, fishing, vacation, and similar trips. Food and drinks purchased at entertainment venues are also considered entertainment, not meals.

- Create a new expense item by selecting +NEW EXPENSE.
- Attach the detailed receipt by selecting ATTACH RECEIPT.
- Select or create the appropriate BUSINESS PURPOSE.
- Enter the Expense Date. The Expense Date must match the date on the receipt. Select the Category as Entertainment.
- Leave "Expense has been Advanced" off.
- Enter the amount including tips if applicable.
- Enter the Description of the entertainment and the names of those attending. If names are not possible, you may provide general information and number of those attending.

Example

Your customer Fred is in town on March 1, 2019 for a one-day factory acceptance test and wants to go play golf after work at XYZ Club. They tell you to put it against the job. You take them, pay for their golf as well as dinner and drinks at the course. Golf for two is $100 and dinner with drinks is another $50. You tip $10 at dinner as well.

- Create a Business Purpose "FAT - Golf and Dinner". Select the appropriate Job and SubJob and check the Customer Billable box.
- Attach the detailed receipt from XYZ Club showing the golf. Also attach the detailed receipt showing the dinner with drinks as well as the receipt showing the $10 tip and total of $60.
- The Expense Date is March 1, 2019.
- The Category is Entertainment.
- Since you used your own credit card, leave the "Expense has been Advanced" off.
- The amount is $160.
- The Description is Dinner and Golf with Fred.
